

Arise Has Expanded To Canada

Enjoy the benefits of becoming one of the first Arise Certified Professionals

Work from your own home. Work the hours convenient to you. Now, the opportunity is yours to grasp. This exciting opportunity is now available to residents in Canada!

The Opportunity

If you have the skills to handle customer service and sales inquiries and you crave for the freedom of working from home, controlling your own schedule and success, partnering with Arise could be for you!

Arise is the world's leading work-from-home contact center, a respected and trusted company.

- For over 13 years, our sister companies in the United States, the United Kingdom and Ireland have built solid reputations as providers of high quality customer services, and sales through a network of more than 20,000 home-based agents globally.
- During a recent jobs conference, U.S. President Barack Obama referred to Arise as a company capable of work creation through a unique self-employment model.
- We offer year-round opportunities to provide customer contact services to the best and most trusted brands - giving you the freedom you crave and the chance to gain the financial results you need.

As an Arise Certified Professional, you choose...which clients to serve, when you work and how often you work.

Our Clients

Once you complete the course specific to our clients, we will ask you to provide a minimum of 20 hours per week of service. You have the choice to service more than 20 hours per week. However, every week you will be able to schedule your own hours for the upcoming week.

Earnings are based on a per-minute rate. You can expect to earn between $11-$16 per hour.

Note: All pricing indicated by the $ sign is in Canadian dollars.

We have immediate opportunities available for customer service agents to answer calls for Rogers Communications, a diversified Canadian communications and media company, working from the comfort of your own home. Rogers is Canada's largest provider of wireless voice and data communications services and one of Canada's leading providers of cable television, high-speed Internet and telephony services.

We welcome all Canadian residents over the age of 18 years to apply.

The Costs

The costs to get started are what you would expect when starting a home-based business. An estimate of these costs is given below. Your individual costs may vary.

The certification fees payable to Arise for ACP101 (basic ACP certification) and Client certification are being waived for early Canadian candidates for a limited time!

This means that when you begin the admission process now, you can very quickly earn back the investment in your home-based business.
