

WASHINGTON INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW 2018 JUNIOR COMMITTEE & YOUTH AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

Established in 1958, the Washington International Horse Show (WIHS) is one of the most prestigious and entertaining equestrian events in North America. The 60th Annual Washington International Horse Show will be held October 23-28, 2018 at Capital One Arena in the heart of Washington, DC.

Since 2009, the WIHS Junior Committee and Youth Ambassador Program, presented by Signature Academics, has engaged local teens to represent the show's youth perspective and support WIHS staff while gaining hands-on experience. Now in its ninth year, this community-focused program is gearing up to welcome Junior Committee members and a new Youth Ambassador to kickoff activities for the 2018 show. Participants in the program have been featured in a number of media publications, including Washington Life Magazine, the Kids' Post, John Kelly's Washington, several DC area community newspapers, cable and internet broadcasts, news radio, print and local television. WIHS is excited to welcome Signature Academics back a supporter of the Junior Committee. Signature Academics specializes in supporting equestrian student-athletes as they train, travel, and compete.

Requirements:

- All applicants for the WIHS Junior Committee and Youth Ambassador Program must be local, Washington, DC area students between the ages of 14 and 18.
- Applicants must demonstrate that they are well versed in the horse world and be able to articulate clearly when asked questions about WIHS and related activities.
- Applicants should demonstrate they are interested in and comfortable with special events, the press, TV, radio, print and be active in social media.
- In addition, applicants for Youth Ambassador should demonstrate leadership experience as he or she will serve as chairman of the Junior Committee, a group of approximately 25 students, and help organize all group activities.

Responsibilities:

Junior Committee members are required to attend meetings and conference calls, and participate in other planning activities throughout the summer and fall. During show week, the Junior Committee will help manage our youth and community activities, give tours, attend events, present ribbons, assist with autograph and book signing sessions, participate in press interviews under the direction of WIHS staff and help with show-related duties such as assisting VIP guests, show operations and media relations. There will also be opportunities to view and enjoy the show. Although show week hours are long and fast-paced, they are also fun and exciting. During show week, school work and education remain a priority for Junior Committee members. We are flexible about hours required for school commitments on these weekdays.

2018 WIHS YOUTH AMBASSADOR APPLICATION

Requirements:

Applicants should be well versed in the equestrian community, including hunter/jumper disciplines, and be able to articulate and feel comfortable answering questions about WIHS and related activities. They should demonstrate a high level of comfort with special event coordination, public speaking, volunteer projects and working with the media. The Youth Ambassador should have significant leadership experience as he or she will serve as chairman of the WIHS Junior Committee, a group of approximately 25 students, and help run meetings and organize all group projects.

Responsibilities:

The Youth Ambassador is strongly encouraged to work in the WIHS office in Washington, DC, at least one day a week during the summer and also be available frequently during the months of September and October. The Youth Ambassador will have opportunities to attend show-related business meetings, conference calls and be in a position to present ideas and concepts to the WIHS staff. The Youth Ambassador will be responsible for helping create Junior Committee agendas, taking notes with next steps and distributing them for follow up. The Youth Ambassador will also help coordinate the active participation of all Junior Committee members on project teams. During the show, the Youth Ambassador will share responsibilities with Junior Committee members. In addition, the Youth Ambassador will represent the Junior Committee for interviews, appearances and other public activities.

If you are interested in becoming the 2018 Youth Ambassador, please answer the following questions, in addition to submitting the Junior Committee Application above. All applications must be typed and submitted to WIHS by Monday, April 2, 2018.

- 1.) As WIHS Youth Ambassador, what special contributions do you believe you can offer to the Junior Committee as its leader?
- 2.) Do you have any previous leadership experience in the equestrian and non-equestrian world?
- 3.) How would you use this experience in your role as WIHS Youth Ambassador?
- 4.) What do you hope to gain personally by serving as WIHS Youth Ambassador?
- 5.) What do you believe is the importance of having a Junior Committee at WIHS? What unique perspectives can the Junior Committee provide for WIHS?
- 6.) Please describe your personal opinion about the importance of having a horse show in the nation's capital and how it impacts the future of equestrian sports in the United States.
- 7.) What is one thing you would like to see changed in our sport and how would you help to achieve it?
- 8.) Please describe a time where you had to overcome a significant challenge and what it taught you.
