WIHS BARN NIGHT BANNER CONTEST 2016

Washington International Horse Show invites barns and other horse-loving clubs or groups to join the fun on Barn Night and enter our BANNER CONTEST. All WIHS Barn Night banners must represent a barn, equestrian center or riding school. Banners will be displayed in a designated area on the concourse during the show. Winners will be announced during Barn Night, Thursday, October 27, 2016.

2016 Contest Theme: Major for President

(Please note: WIHS is a nonpartisan 501(c)(3) organization. Major, the WIHS mascot, is an equal party candidate and loves everyone at WIHS and Barn Night. Please keep all submissions lighthearted and nonpartisan like Major!)

Entry Information

- All entry forms for the WIHS Barn Night Banner Contest must be completed and received by October 14, 2016. Forms may be mailed, faxed, scanned and emailed.
- Completed banners must be brought to Verizon Center by 6:15 PM on October 27, 2016 to be displayed in the designated area.
- One entry per barn, club or group. Entry forms may be found online at www.wihs.org/barn-night/
- Entry forms must include the signature of an adult, if submitter is under age 18.
- Photographs of participants and banners may be taken and used in WIHS promotional materials.

Judging

- Entries will be judged on originality, design, artwork, adherence to theme and message. Artistic merit is important.
- Be creative; have fun, but in good taste. Banner should capture the personality and special traits of your barn or riding program. Message may be delivered by picture(s), other graphics and designs and/or a slogan.
- Banners should appeal to a broad horse-loving audience.
- We recommend that banners are done on artist canvas (pre-primed roll) or standard vinyl banner fabric and are supported by a wooden rod at the top.
- Banners should be no smaller than 2' x 4' and no larger than 3' x 8'.
- Banners should NOT use photographs, images, graphics that infringe on someone else's copyright or trademark.
- Banners will be judged during Barn Night on Thursday, October 27, while hung in a designated area on the Verizon Center concourse. Decision of judges is final.
- Judging will be completed by 7:00PM and groups will be allowed to take banners into the seating area after that time.

Prizes will be awarded for:

- Champion: Electro-groom Vacuum Cleaner with Booster Power
- Reserve Champion: $250 Dover Saddlery Shopping Spree
- Honorable Mentions: $50 Dover Saddlery Shopping Spree will be awarded to up to three (3) HMs
