Palmetto Bay Academy is authorized under Federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students.

Palmetto Bay Academy's international student program is based in the experience of our Founder Lois Dimos, who has 30 years experience with ESL programs and international students, as well as our Director Maggie Eubanks and Associate Director John Eubanks, who spent five years each building schools and educating learners in China and Indonesia.

Their experience with international learners helps you know you will have an experienced, knowledgeable support system for your international education experience!

Our program offers:

- College preparatory program with graduates accepted at top state and US schools (University of Florida, University of Miami, Florida International University, Florida State University, Loyola, Emory etc.)
- 7 to 1 student to teacher ratio to support academic and social success
- American teachers experienced with international students

- Individual Faculty Advisor
- Language support
- Support services for students with learning differences
- One-on-one teacher interactions
- Specialized cultural trips to truly “experience” South Florida
- College counselling support and events
- Freedom to stay with family or choose any homestead provider
